

ANNOUNCING Your Company Store

An affordable and Feature Rich PopUp on your company website.

We have been building and launching Company Stores for our clients, custom-designed with their specific needs and desires, and now we are proud to roll out our three-tiered offerings: Your Company Store with a distinct difference!

Let me explain ...

Enosis is a Greek word meaning a union or to unite. Our company name demonstrates the union of technology with print and how even way back when I started the company, the future held many promises for technology to provide for more creativity, increased efficiency, and greater affordability in producing custom forms, apparel, and promotional materials.

When creating online Company Stores for our clients, we built a three-tier offer that unites the features our clients asked for in their Company Stores and adds a bit of Greek mythology for better top-of-mind awareness.

Zeus Premium

Like the Greek King of the Gods, Zeus Premium unites the many features that make Your Company Store robust and loaded with everything you want to make designing, manufacturing, and delivering custom branded apparel and promotional products. You get several options for company controls and purchasing options.

Zeus Premium offers a sophisticated company store with several choices for company controls, including purchase options, corporate budget, an employee annual allowance ... and you can open a company account to take care of billing.

Hera Plus

Hera was the wife of Zeus, the Queen of the Gods, the Goddess of Marriage. This version gives company managers, rather than employees, the ability to order monthly or quarterly and maintain inventory for employee branded apparel and products.

Hera Plus marries the opportunities available for features and selection with the controls and options your company requires. View a sample of a Hera Plus Company Store

Ares On-demand

Ares was the son of Zeus and Hera and Ares On-demand is a scaled version of Your Company Store. It provides the ability to order just one or a small quantity for your company or an individual. Ideal for special gifts for clients or employees.

Ares On-Demand Company Stores eliminate the need to inventory products. Goods are paid for by credit card. Pricing is higher for the convenience of ordering just one of a kind with swift service and delivery. Your company can order using our own ENOSIS Graphic Solutions' Zeus Premium or Hera Plus stores for larger quantities to obtain better pricing.
